MADISON, WI (January 13th, 2022) Efrin Castro has signed with Kelly-Moss for the 2022 Porsche Carrera Cup North America season.

"I feel incredibly blessed to be able to race with Kelly Moss. It's such an honor," Castro says.

"They have so much to offer with their abundance of racing knowledge and track experience. I'm really looking forward to developing my driving skill with them."

Castro, who began racing in 2017, quickly climbed the ranks to become one of the most competitive drivers in his series. Proving to be competitive, garnering an impressive fourth place in the 2017 Cayman GT4, Trophy East series. 2018 found him atop the podium as the Cayman GT4 Trophy East Champion. 2019 Castro moved to the IMSA Porsche GT3 Cup Challenge USA series finishing fourth in a 991.1. He followed that up in 2020 finishing second in the Porsche GT3 Cup Championship proving he was going to be someone to reckon with. In the 2021 Porsche Carrera Cup North America inaugural season, he was crowned the Pro-Am Champion in the new Porsche 992 GT3 Cup car..

This year he'll be driving a new 992 in the 2022 Porsche Carrera Cup North America Pro-Am series in quest of his second consecutive Pro-Am championship.

"I'm excited to increase my skill level with the 992. Eventually I want to race in the Pro-Am European Super Cup Series."

This year Castro will be running a pink car to raise awareness for breast cancer.

"It's a tribute to my best friend who's mother passed away from breast cancer when he was very young, as well as my daughter's best friend who's currently battling breast cancer," Castro says.

"There will be a QR code on the wrap of the car that people can scan and donate directly to breast cancer research."

"We are beyond thrilled to have Efrin join the Kelly-Moss family," says Andy Kilcoyne, CEO of Kelly Moss.

"We look forward to continuing to hone and refine Efrin's skill set to prepare him for his future goals of racing in Europe."
